The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday November 9. to Tuesday November 12. 1723.

Stockholm, October 31.

M. Bassewitz, Minister of the Duke of Holstein, had a private Audience of the King of Sweden the 27th Instant, when he presented to his Majesty a Letter of Thanks from the Duke his Master, in Answer to that his Majesty wrote to him on Occasion of the Title of Royal Highness which was lately granted to him. The said Minister gave also a Letter to the Senate from the Duke, on the same Subject. The same Day an Herald made publick Proclamation by Sound of Trumpets and Drums, as is the Custom here, that the Dyet of the Kingdom had concluded their Session; and on the 28th all the Deputies took Leave of the King, in order to return Home.

Copenhagen, Nov. 9. The Lord Glenorchy, Envoy Extraordinary from the King of Great Britain, having received His Majesty's Leave to attend him, will set out from hence the 13th Instant for Hanover and Gohre. Prince Charles, Brother to the King of Denmark, is come hither from the Country. His Highness has been indisposed two or three Days, but is now much better.

Cambray, Nov. 11, N. S. Yesterday being the Birth-Day of his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, the Lord Polwarth gave a very magnificent Entertainment to all the Ministers and other Persons of Quality, of both Sexes, at this Place.

Paris, Nov. 15. The Duke de Noailles, who was some time since banished from Court, being restored to Favour and recalled, came the 10th Instant to Conflans, where he was met by his Brother the Cardinal de Noailles, and in the Evening they arrived here. The 11th the Duke de Noailles waited on his Royal Highness the Duke of Orleans, who on the 13th introduced him to the King at Versailles, by whom he was very graciously received. This Day the Court went into Mourning for three Weeks, for the Great Duke of Tuscany; the Duke of Orleans and his Family will wear it six Weeks, on Account of his Relation to the Deceased.

Berlin, Nov. 9, N. S. The King of Prussia intended to have set out this Day for Gohre, to make a Visit to His Britannick Majesty; but the Queen of Prussia having been happily brought to Bed of a Princess about Six a-Clock this Morning, his Prussian Majesty has thought fit to put off his Journey till To-Morrow.

Brussels, Nov. 17, N. S. We have an Account from Liege, that the Elector of Cologne died at Bonn on the 12th of this Month in the Evening.
